Subject: Your new hosting account has been setup!
Date: Wednesday, May 05, 2010 4:55:30 PM

Dear Jason Roberts,

Congratulations, your new hosting account has been setup. The details for your account are located below:

Account Username: ohioblue
Account Password: 6576880e
Account IP Address: 70.87.95.131
Domain Name: ohiobluebirdsociety.org

To access your cPanel, use the following address, with the username and password from above:
<http://www.ohiobluebirdsociety.org/cpanel>

If you cannot access your account using the address above, try the following address instead:
<http://70.87.95.131/cpanel>

DNS propagation delays, which may take up to 48 hours, may prevent you from accessing your site using your actual domain name. This may occur because DNS servers around the globe will need to be automatically updated.

Name Server Information:

If you did not register your domain name with us, you will need to go to your domain registrar, and change the name servers for your domain to the correct ones located below:

Primary Name Server: ns1.yittle.net
Primary Name Server IP: 70.87.95.130

Secondary Name Server: ns2.yittle.net
Secondary Name Server IP: 70.87.95.131

Detailed Account Information:

Disk Space: 400
Bandwidth: 2000
FTP: unlimited
Email Accounts: unlimited
Mailing Lists: unlimited
MySQL databases: unlimited
Sub Domains: unlimited
Parked Domains: unlimited
Addon Domains: 5
